Freeman okays new name

Last Monday the five state teachers colleges in Minnesota received new names. Governor Freeman signed a bill which eliminates "teachers" from the names of the schools. Our school is now Moorhead State College.

Moorhead State College has undergone other name changes in the past. In 1885 when the school was established, it was called Moorhead Normal School. The legislature passed an act in 1921 changing the name to Moorhead State Teachers College.

Present at the signing of the bill in the governor's office were President A. L. Knoblauch, Dr. Joseph Kise, Dr. Paul Heaton, and Dr. Amos Maxwell.

Dr. Knoblauch had this to say, "In 1920 all types of schools like this were known as normal colleges. By 1940, 50% of them were known as state colleges. We are following the trend that has developed for the following reasons:

"1. The newer title is more descriptive of the programs the colleges will have to conduct in order to meet the needs of the ever-increasing range of youngsters that are enrolling.

"2. The title will be of invaluable assistance to us in recruiting new staff members. This is particularly true in the areas of science, mathematics, history, literature, and psychology.

"3. The title will save the state considerable money. In other words, where this change has taken place literally thousands of youngsters have chosen this type of institution rather than the university type of institution. Thus, because of the difference in cost the state can invariably save many dollars because of this change.

"4. It will help to avoid confusion that may result from conflicts in other areas that bring about the creation of newer institutions whose func-

Commission allots $41,805 for 57-58 student activities

Final figures for the 1957-58 student activities budget have just been released by the Student Commission. Next year the budget will reach a total of $41,805, a figure which Mr. L. O. Nelson says is one of the largest activities budgets for a college which he knows of. Nearly all of the budget figure goes directly into student-fund activities.

Largest appropriation made by the commission is for athletics. For all sports $11,834 is being allotted. This includes $5335 for football, $2895 for basketball, $1025 for track, $2379 for other sports and general expense, and $200 for men's intramural sports.

Second largest sum on the budget is for publications. Next year the Mistic is expected to cost $5550 and the Dragon $4513. Literary Designs gets $275 and $100 goes for Frosh Faces.

Entertainment is due to get $2620. That will be used for convocations, arts activities, and KMSC.

Going into the health program, which supplies medical services to students free of charge, is $4571. Dramatics and Forensics get $2140, about evenly divided. The music department appropriation is $3485, while that of social activities is $1890.

Special accounts, including women's athletics and Pep Club, get $742. The summer school allowance is $1800, to be used for the Midget Mistic, entertainment, and social affairs.

Money for the activities budget comes from student activities fees and from various other sources, such as athletics, music presentations, advertising in publications.

All income is paid directly into the Student Commission budget. For example, the Mistic does not keep the money derived from advertising (about $2800 per year) but pays it directly to the commission, which, in

Mistic change: Shall we do it again?

As you now know, MSTC has officially become MSC. Does this mean that the Mistic is now the Misic?

Actually there is no reason why there should be a new masthead for our college paper. But there is little reason for sentimentally hanging on to a 33-year-old tradition.

In 1901 when MS was still known as Moorhead Normal, the paper's name was Normal Red Letter.

In 1905 the name was changed to the MS Bulletin. In 1925 the masthead was again changed to read The Mistic. This was accomplished by a vote of the student body. Six years later, when Dr. Murray became director of publications, our present name came into being. Since MS served the western part of Minnesota, the college paper became The Western Mistic.

A little interesting sidelight is that the students and faculty desired that the official title of Moorhead State Teachers College be changed to Western Minnesota STC. A subhead under the regular Western Mistic masthead was Western Minnesota State College. This was unofficial, however, and was later lost in the shuffle of new editors and new publication directors.

Since there has been a change in the official title of our school it would be interesting to know how the students and administration feel about a new name for the Mistic. If there is to be a change, now is the time.

Foreign languages reported valuable

Do you want your child to have better grades in school? Have him study a foreign language.

That is what the result of a number of studies, recently reported by the Modern Language Association, seem to recommend.

The studies, made in various colleges and schools, show that students who have had foreign languages get better grades on college entrance exams and also do better work in college.

Students whose grades were checked in the survey were not hand picked, but were a cross section of average students. In one of the studies they were grouped in three classes, one class of students who had no foreign language, another class of those who had had one year of it in high school, and finally a class which grouped students with two years of language study.

In every case students in the last group got the best grades. The poorest work was done by students who had had no foreign language. It was also found that students with no language study or with only one year of it were those who most frequently dropped out of college.

In grade school, too, foreign language apparently counts. One study showed that school pupils taking a language did "markedly better" than those who were not taking one.

The Modern Language Association points out, however, that it could be coincidence and wants more studies to be made.

To the editor:

Members of the Student Commission would like to thank everyone who helped to clean up our campus on Wednesday, April 24.

Thanks go also to campus school students for the part they played in our clean-up day. It was a job well done.

Eleven to attend education meeting

Eleven MSC laboratory school teachers will attend and four will participate in the student teaching conference today and tomorrow at the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks.

Those attending the meeting, sponsored by the Tri-State Association for Student Teaching, are: Miss Dorothy Dodds, Miss Laura Scherfenberg, Mrs. Orda Peterson, Mrs. Bernice Anderson, Mrs. Betty Bergford, Mrs. Monica DuCharme, Miss Shelda Jacobson, Dr. Jane Johnston, Dr. Werner Brand, Miss Alice Corneliussen, and Miss Ruth Hanson. From the Agassiz school, Fargo, Mrs. Mona Wohlwend will also go to the meeting.

Miss Scherfenberg, vice-president of the association, is program chairman and will preside at the Saturday luncheon. At that luncheon Dr. Johnston will report on MSC laboratory school staff research. Miss Hanson will be leading a discussion group, while Miss Corneliussen will participate as a member of the Executive Board of the association.

The theme of the conference is "Guiding the Prospective Teacher." The association concerns itself with improvement of the training of college students undergoing practice teaching.

al conditions throughout the United States.

Though Minnesota takes no more "firsts" in the report, nevertheless it ranks sixth in the percentage of high school students graduating as compared with other states and sixth in the amount of money spent per pupil per year ($355).

Minnesota's other high rating is for what it hasn't got. That is, the state stands eighth in the estimated financial needs for school construction.

At the other end of the scale, the state ranks 45th in the percentage of elementary school teachers without degrees. (The Minnesota Education Association is now working to raise standards and has succeeded in adding one year to the course required for elementary teachers.)

School pupils may be happy to know that Minnesota has one of the shortest school years, 172.8 days. But the days they actually attend amount to 154.7. The longest school year is that of Illinois (187.1 days) and the shortest is in Mississippi (163.2).

Other facts from the report are: While Minnesotans pay taxes of $78.35 per capita, $45 of this goes to the schools.

Average salary of Minnesota teachers is $4,200, the state ranking 18th.

The school age population is 22.7 percent of the total population, or 434 school age children per 1,000 adults aged 21 to 64.

Winona, Mankato top Dragons on four game baseball tour

MSC's lack of outdoor practice showed up in the opening season competition against Winona on Monday. The Dragons dropped two close ball games 8 to 6 and 5 to 2 to the Warriors.

Don Betzen went all the way for Moorhead in the opener and Ken Grabinske pitched the second game. Errors proved very costly to MS and cost them both ball games. The teams each collected 11 hits during the double header but MS committed five errors to three by Winona.

In the opener, John Chalfant collected two doubles in three attempts and in the second game Ken Grabinske, got two hits for two trips to the plate. One was a double. Also in the second game Christianson of Winona, hit a home run.

MSC outthit Winona in the second game and aside from the costly errors could have wrapped up the game. Grabinske's effort in this game held the Warriors to only three hits and only one until the seventh inning.

The team committed only one error, but could only pick up four hits to back Jerry Mehlich on the mound. Mehlich allowed only eight hits and gave up only two walks. Bernard Henderson pitched the final two innings for the Dragons. Bill Beck pounded out two clean hits and scored two of the Dragons' three runs in the first game. Dick Zak scored the third run on Beck's double.

Two Mankato players connected for home runs in the opening game. Musser, the first baseman, got three hits for four trips to the plate, one a homer. Cashill, the man who pitched the whole game for the victors, hit a home run with one aboard in the third.

In the second round of play Glenn Anderson went the distance for the Dragons and Duncan hurled the game for Mankato. Anderson also got two hits in three attempts and allowed only six hits. Seven walks, however, hurt the Dragons. Benda, another first baseman for Mankato hit a home run in the seventh with one man on.

Strong winds slow netmen

by Dave Kroshus

The tennis team has been practicing as much as the weather has permitted, in preparation for coming matches. The greatest hindrance has been the strong winds which have greatly hampered progress.

The team will begin play on Friday, April 26, against NDAC. The match is set for the Island Park court at 2 p.m. This match promises to be a stiff test as the AC has two very capable veterans in Eddie Treat, one of North Dakota's outstanding tennis players and Dave Quill of Moorhead. Coach Glasrud has selected five men to play against the Bison.

Listed according to their team position they are: Gary Kludt, Detroit Lakes, Les Smith, a senior transfer student from Kearney, Neb., Leonard Zimmerman, Herman, Tony Ludwig, Alberta, and Jim Rice, Wadena. Chuck Schumacher, regular no. 2 man is ill and will not compete. Besides the five singles there will be two doubles. Pairing up for these are Kludt and Smith, and Zimmerman and Ludwig.

The second match is on Tuesday,

April 30, at Mayville, on the Comets' court at 2 p.m. There will be four players making the trip. The Comets' are coached by Mr. Forseth, a graduate of MS.

Dragon tails

Failure to hit, field is Dragons' downfall

by Wes Van Tassel

Things began slowly for the MSC baseball team this spring as they dropped first round double headers to Winona and Mankato. The men, lacking outdoor practices, played good ball after a slow start on Monday but could not get their hitting up to par.

Errors proved to be the downfall in the first games but play smoothed out after that. The pitching was good aside from a little control trouble the throwers had. This was due to an insufficient amount of throwing outdoors. The Dragons used five pitchers on the trip and all showed much promise. Bill Beck, Ken Grabinske, and Glenn Anderson led in the hitting department and Grabinske and Anderson each pitched a full game.

Because of lack of space there were a few items left out of the last issue of Dragon Tails. John Chalfant, the Dragons' first string catcher, has signed to be player-manager of the Fergus Falls Red Sox for the coming summer.

Dick Bowden, a sophomore from Norcross has joined the sports staff of the Mistic and will assist Dave Kroshus and myself in covering the sports news around the campus.

Ray Johnson, a freshman from Connecticut, has enrolled at MS and has joined the golf team.
